

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 3, 2018

Contact: Scott Corwin
Phone: (503) 595-9775
Email: scorwin@ppcpdx.org

LAUREN TENNEY DENISON JOINS STAFF OF PUBLIC POWER COUNCIL

PORTLAND, OR — The Public Power Council (PPC) announced today that Lauren Tenney Denison has joined PPC as a Senior Policy Analyst.

Tenney Denison was most recently a public utilities specialist with the Bonneville Power Administration. Having held various positions at BPA since 2008, she has extensive analytical and technical expertise and project management experience regarding complex transmission issues and other rates and revenue matters regarding federal power supply and delivery.

“We are excited to have an expert coming on-board with such impressive skills and talents,” said PPC Executive Director, Scott Corwin. “We are very pleased that Lauren will join our team at this critical time for our members regarding current and future generation and transmission options.”

Tenney Denison resides in Portland and is a graduate of Lewis and Clark College with a B.A. in Economics. In addition, she has conducted graduate work on energy policy and management at Portland State University.

###

About PPC—The Public Power Council (PPC) is a not for profit association that represents about 100 consumer-owned electric utilities in the Pacific Northwest. PPC provides expertise and advocacy on issues regarding the Federal Columbia River Power System, and is a forum to discuss and build consensus around energy and utility issues. For more information, please see: www.ppcpdx.org